Plenary II

Transforming Education Outcomes

Schools are being called upon to transform their school cultures and develop graduates who are well balanced. Employers at all levels are seeking ethical and innovative employees, who can work effectively with others, solve problems and build trust with co-workers, peers, clients and customers. This session will explore how Ministries of Education, schools, principals and teachers are creating new possibilities in educating the total child through modeling and nurturing character and an entrepreneurship mindset.

Innovative Models and Approaches

Driving Change with Public, Private and Social Partnerships

Education is a complex social problem that no single sector can solve alone. Explore how new cross-sector partnerships are emerging at the state and community levels through a variety of public, private and social ventures that drive transformational education outcomes.

Learning for a Purpose: Reshaping What It Means to Educate

Each child is unique and special, has the potential to be good and great, is naturally curious and inherently creative. How can teachers transform their classrooms in such a way that each student is engaged and never bored? How can they create an environment that stimulates collaboration, teamwork, respect and problem solving? Explore what the 21st Century classroom can look like and the approaches that great teachers and schools are pioneering in educating the total child?

Creating Value through Entrepreneurship, Leadership and Digital Learning

What are the opportunities to nurture student entrepreneurship in schools? How can student leadership development enhance that? How can digital skills and technology be utilized to drive student innovation? How to increase mentorship from universities and external partners?

News | International Professors and Educators Conference 2017

What can the leadership team and teachers do to support new entrepreneurial models such as incubators and solving real world problems?
How will that inspire and enhance learning outcomes?

Re-imagining Principal and Teacher Leadership Development

Great principals and teachers matter more than anything else within a school. More than class size, funding or technology. What new types of principal and teacher development are needed to unleash the full leadership potential, confidence, and destiny of students? What is currently stifling teachers to be great? How can teachers increase their effectiveness through collaboration with colleagues? What needs to be challenged in current processes that will lead to sustainable change?

Building Momentum for Impact

Momentum and awareness is essential to improving the impact of education with character and leadership so that students are graduating to be successful in work and in all aspects of their lives. We will explore strategies at the International, National and Local levels to engage key stakeholders through collaboration and shared values in creating smart networks and working groups for sustainable impact. We will conclude with a set of ambitious goals. Sessions(4)

Closing Plenary

2017 Global Peace Concert " One Dream One World " (SM MOA Arena) *optional

Conference Venue: Marriott Grand Ballroom

Set against the backdrop of the Resorts World complex in the Philippines' capital city, just moments from the airport, the venue will dazzle you with its spacious accommodations and unparalleled services. Gaze out at the adjoining 18-hole Villamor Golf Course and enjoy access to the Lounge during your time here in Manila. Manila, the capital of the Philippines, is a bayside city on the island of Luzon, which mixes Spanish colonial architecture with modern skyscrapers. Intramuros, a walled city in colonial times, is the heart of Old Manila. It's home to the baroque 16th-century San Agustin Church as well as Fort Santiago, a storied citadel and military prison.
