SUBJECT: EMPOWERING PUBLIC SCHOOLS DISTRICT SUPERVISORS AS DISTRICT
BRIGADA ESKWELA COORDINATORS, DISTRICT NURSES AS B.E. 2017
HEALTH AND SAFETY MONITORS

DATE: May 8, 2017

1. Relative to the conduct of 2017 National Schools Maintenance Week also known as the Brigada Eskwela on May 15 -20, 2017, during which time the first phase of the One Million Trees in 2020 Going Green Brigada will be launched, this Office hereby empowers all Public Schools District Supervisors to act as District Brigada Eskwela Coordinators, and shall perform among others these functions:
  - a. To ensure compliance by all schools of DepEd Memorandum no. 43, s. 2017, re: 2017 Brigada Eskwela Implementing Guidelines, as well as Division Memo No. 133, s. 2017, re: Conduct of Tree Planting Activity;
  - b. To provide technical assistance to school heads to ensure concerted and successful Brigada Eskwela implementation in the district;
  - c. To conduct B.E. Monitoring with or without Division Monitoring team, in a representative number of schools within the district;
  - d. To coordinate with the Municipal LGU whenever necessary, for the availability, release and delivery of seedlings, or any other packages which the latter may provide; and
  - e. To follow up compliance by schools to the B.E. reportorial requirements thereafter

2. In the same vein, District Nurses are empowered to:
  - a. Conduct awareness campaign and ocular inspection together with the District or Division Monitoring team, to ensure safe and healthful participation by all school stakeholders in the 2017 Brigada Eskwela activity;
  - b. Treat and report hazards and health-related cases;
  - c. Perform such other functions as may be delegated to them by the District Coordinators.

For strict compliance.
