Subject: Curated Resources for Climate Change Education and Action

Date: March 5, 2021

1. The Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Service (DRRMS), in partnership with the Bureau of Curriculum Development and Information Communication and Technology Service, curated reference materials and supplementary learning materials on climate change education and action.
2. In this connection, all School Heads and Teachers are encouraged to utilize the compilation of resources that will support teaching concepts related to climate change. Please refer to the microsite at <http://bit.ly/DepEdCCE> for the following:
 - a. References and resources connected to DepED Commons and Learning Resources Management and Development System (LRMDS)
 - b. References for teachers
 - c. Learning resources with APA citation (lesson plans, videos, and interactive online activities)
3. Please note that materials included are owned by external partners and shall be used exclusively for non-commercial purposes. Kindly refer to OUA Memo 00-0221-0220 for the guidelines on how to navigate through the microsite.
4. For information, guidance and widest dissemination.
