1. Access to Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) facilities and behavioral change education in schools are critical for a strong learning environment that can greatly contribute to inclusion, dignity, and equity. This principle is cognizant to DepEd Order No.10 or commonly known as "Policy and Guidelines for the comprehensive Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) in Schools (WinS) Program, which states that clean water, functional toilet and proper hygiene practices in schools are integral to achieving learning outcomes and are relevant to school management operations for improvement and sustainability.
2. The Division of Zamboanga del Norte will be conducting a Research on Wash in Schools Program entitled "A SURVEY AND EVALUATION OF THE SCHOOLS AND LEARNING CENTERS" targeting all ZERO- and ONE-STAR rating schools in the districts.
3. Relative to this, an orientation will be conducted on June 17, 2022 @ 9:30 am via MS Teams. All district WinS coordinators and school heads both elementary and secondary are hereby requested to attend. Link will be provided one (1) hour before the scheduled activity thru the district Nurse.
4. For any clarifications, please contact the Division WinS Coordinator through 0917-132-3258.
5. For Guidance and Compliance.
