SUBJECT : LIVE-OUT DIVISION SEMINAR-WORKSHOP ON VALUES EDUCATION VIA ONE HOPE PROGRAM

DATE : November 3, 2016

1. This has reference to the ONE HOPE Program, duly approved by the office of Schools Division Superintendent. Series of seminars will be conducted in the different municipalities of the entire province in three batches to commence on November 14, 2016 specifically in the first congressional district as batch 1. However, the schedule for the second and third congressional districts will be announced later in a separate memorandum.

2. The objectives of this convergence are the following:

- a. To enhance the Values teachers with the teaching of Values formation to the learners.
- b. To capacitate the teachers in teaching values exemplars and utilize innovative activities suited to the learners' abilities and styles.
- c. To equip teachers with various strategies in values formation in the classroom setting.
- d. To facilitate students' experience in relation to the Core Values developed in the K to 12 Curriculum.

3. The expected participants are all the teachers of all the elementary and secondary schools, Principals and District Supervisors of each municipality in the three congressional districts. School heads are advised to instruct their teachers to shorten their classes in the morning of the dates where the seminar falls.
