THREE-DAY ENHANCEMENT TRAINING FOR NSPC QUALIFIERS

In preparation for the 2017 National Schools Press Conference (NSPC) on January 22-25, 2017 in Pagadian City, the Regional Office shall conduct a three-day enhancement training for NSPC qualifiers on January 19-21, 2017 in Pagadian City (specific venue to be announced later)

The said training specifically aims to:

1. enhance campus journalists' and coaches' skills on the basics and technicalities of the different contest categories;
2. produce competitive contestants for the NSPC; and
3. enhance social and environmental awareness among school children

Target participants to the training are the following:

- Top 3 winners in individual categories
- Champion teams in collaborative publishing, radio broadcasting and TV broadcasting
- Division supervisors in English and Filipino
- Two coaches per division

(Please refer to the attached sheet for the NSPC qualifiers. The coaches are to be identified by the respective divisions)

Arrival and check-in shall be on January 19 at 8:00 AM. It is expected that participants have already taken breakfast before reporting at the venue. Snacks shall be served in the morning. The last meal shall be breakfast of January 22.

It is emphasized that after the training, participants shall immediately proceed to the billeting quarter of Region IX for the 2017 NSPC. Coaches shall meet their contestants at the delegation quarter.

Since training participants can no longer go home for a break before the NSPC, they are reminded therefore to prepare enough clothing for the entire duration. A matrix of activities is attached for reference and guidance.

For immediate and widest dissemination.
