SUBJECT : EMERGENCY SERVICE TRAINING CORPS (ESTC)

1. We are pleased to announce that the Zamboanga del Norte – Dipolog – Dapitan City Council Boy Scouts of the Philippines will conduct the Emergency Service Training Corps (ESTC) on December 18 – 23, 2021 at the BSP Scout Camp, Comprá, Liloy, Zamboanga del Norte.
2. The Emergency Service Program is the contribution of Scouting to Community defence against the distinctive effects of disaster. The program is auxiliary for the community service component of Service Scouting.
3. It may well be noted that action does not happen during emergency only but during the normal times as well. Activities such as traffic services providing manpower on government programs and projects doing community service and information drive, especially on public safety and prevention can keep the Emergency Service Corps (ESC) in active duty any given situation.
4. The ZANDIDAP Council and the Department of Education – Zamboanga del Norte Division, organize and maintain a corps of Senior Scouts as early responder group to serve the people in time of disasters and civil disturbances. This training is compulsory and exclusively for the Scouts who achieve and working for their advancement rank.
5. Considering that only fifty (70%) of the seating or venue capacity is allowed by the Local IATF, our training is limited to fifty (50) participants.
6. Hereunder are other pertinent information about the course:
 - 6.1 Qualification for admission open to the lower ranks and compulsory to Outdoorsman, Venturer & Eagle Scout Rank:
