Attention: EUNICE D. JANOLINO, Education Program Specialist II

Dear Superintendent Tuballa,

Greetings from the Philippine Association of Citizens with Development and Learning Disabilities (PACDLD)!

In celebration of the National Disability Prevention and Rehabilitation Week (July 17-23) the PACDLD will conduct the "Knowledge Sharing with Parents, Teachers and Local Government Stakeholders on Children With Disabilities" and "Arts Festival for Children in Marginalized Communities" in Dipolog City on July 19-20, 2024. This project will be implemented in partnership with the National Commission on Culture and the Arts and the National Council on Disability Affairs. These will be held at the Provincial Convention Center and the exhibit of artworks will be at the 2F of the Provincial Capitol Building.

In our visit last May 27, 2024, Provincial Governor Nene Jalosjos and through the Provincial Administrator, agreed to partner with us on these activities. We were asked to visit you but we were unable to speak with you. We respectfully request from your good office the following:

1. Participation on the 1st day of 30 parents with children with disabilities and 20 teachers from your SpEd and Inclusive Schools in Zamboanga Del Norte
2. Participation on the 2nd day of 50 children in the morning of July 20 who will bring any of their artworks or crafts they have made in school
3. Another 50 children on the afternoon of the 2nd day who will perform (dance, song, play instrument, recite poems and stories)

PACDLD is a non-government/civil society organization duly registered with the Security and Exchange Commission since 2002. You may contact us through Ms. Myra Hulleza-Sepe (0917 3168980) or email us at octagon_12@yahoo.com or mhsepe@gmail.com

Thank you for your kind attention.

Very truly yours,

Felicité Jean Gonzales
