To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendents
CID and SGOD Chief Education Supervisors
Education Program Supervisors
Public Schools District Supervisors
Elementary and Secondary School Heads
All Others Concerned

1. In line with the Department's commitment to continuously improve its processes, build a stronger teaching workforce, and enhance learning outcomes, this Office informs the field of the Regional Hybrid Orientation of School Heads, Master Teachers, and Teachers on Learning System Reform Policies.
2. This orientation is conducted in support of the implementation of DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2026 (Three-Term School Calendar in Basic Education) and other learning system reform initiatives, aimed at providing clear understanding of policy intent, implementation requirements, and corresponding support mechanisms.
3. The orientation shall be conducted on May 5-6, 2026, through a hybrid modality, with participants attending either onsite or online sessions as scheduled by the Regional Office.
4. Identified School Heads and Master Teachers who are required to attend the onsite orientation on their specified dates are listed in Annex A of this Memorandum. All other participants shall attend the orientation virtually, as identified and scheduled in Annex B.
5. All participants are advised to:
 - Attend the orientation on their assigned schedule;
 - Ensure stable internet connectivity for those attending virtually;
 - Actively participate and take note of key policy directions and implementation guidelines; and
 - Echo the orientation to teachers and stakeholders in their respective schools.
6. PSDSs are enjoined to lead the consolidation of all identified online participants in a designated venue within the district during the scheduled orientation and to ensure accurate attendance monitoring, with the consolidated attendance to be submitted to the Division HRD.
